- b. Beyond The Roses Equine Rescue and Retirement shall give notice of its intent to exercise the option to repossess the horse within six (6) months of the date that any report is due or inspection denied.
- c. It is agreed and understood by the Adopter that the following shall be deemed material violations of this Agreement, by way of illustration and not by limitation:
 - i. Failure to comply with Section 7, above, giving Beyond The Roses Equine Rescue and Retirement the appropriate notice and time to exercise its right of first refusal.
 - ii. Failure to comply with Section 8, above, providing required reports and permitting inspections.
 - iii. Failure to comply with Section 9, above, providing for the proper care of the Adopted Horse.
 - iv. Failure to comply with Section 10, above, auctioning or racing the Adopted Horse.
- d. The Adopter shall remain responsible for the damages referred to in Section 1, even if Beyond The Roses Equine Rescue and Retirement exercises its right to repossess the Adopted Horse.

13. Condition and Temperament of the Adopted Horse.

- a. The Adopter accepts the Adopted Horse in its current condition "as is" and in its current location "where is".
- b. Beyond The Roses Equine Rescue and Retirement makes no representation as to the Adopted Horse's behavior or temperament and does not warrant or guarantee the condition, soundness, temperament, or training of the Adopted Horse.
- c. The Adopter acknowledges that the Adopted Horse is likely a former race horse, and may have recently finished a racing career.
- d. The Adopter understands and acknowledges that being in the presence of horses and any and all activities involving horses are inherently dangerous
- e. Beyond The Roses Equine Rescue and Retirement disclaims liability for any implied warranties, including implied warranties of "merchantability" and "fitness" for a specific purpose.

14. Assumption of the Risk of Equine Activity. The Adopter acknowledges that the Adopter has been notified and hereby assumes all of the risks inherent in equine activity, including, but not limited to, any of the following: (a) The propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, death, or loss to persons on or around the equine; (b) The unpredictability of an equine's reaction to sounds, sudden movement, unfamiliar objects, persons, or other animals; (c) Hazards, including, but not limited to, surface or subsurface conditions; (d) A collision with another equine, another animal, a person, or an object; (e) The potential of an equine activity participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury, death, or loss to the person of the participant or to other persons, including, but not limited to, failing to maintain control over an equine or failing to act within the ability of the participant. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this agreement.

15. Miscellaneous.

- a. All terms, conditions and obligations described within this Adoption Agreement shall be interpreted and governed by Michigan law.
- b. If any dispute arises regarding the performance of this Agreement, the parties expressly agree that only those courts located within the location of the horse will have jurisdiction to determine such disputes, and each party hereby consents to such jurisdiction.
- c. The parties hereto hereby waive any right to trial by jury in matters arising out of this Agreement. BEYOND THE ROSES EQUINE RESCUE AND RETIREMENT AND ADOPTER HEREBY SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE THE AFORESAID WAIVER OF RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL.
- d. The individual signing on behalf of each of the parties hereby represents that said individual has the authority to sign on behalf of and bind the respective party.
