Congratulations, and thank you for adopting! As you get to know your new equine, please feel free to reach out to us with any questions you may have. We are committed to helping to create a rewarding life-long experience! Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation is here to provide you with any support you may need to help this adoption be a success, and we hope that this is just the beginning of your relationship with Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation. By signing below, you agree to the following:

The adopter agrees to the following regulations and conditions:

- 1. You are adopting the animal described above (the equine), and ownership of this equine is being transferred from Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation to you.
- 2. You agree to provide the equine with a good home and proper treatment and care, including appropriate shelter, food, water and medical attention and shall comply with all federal, state, and local laws and regulations related to the care of the equine. You further agree to provide the equine with safe and adequate shelter, turnout area, and safe fencing, and appropriate and regular exercise.
- 3. As owner of the equine, you are responsible for all of his or her expenses, including but not limited to medical expenses, farrier expenses, and dental expenses.
- 4. You shall not abandon, sell or transfer the equine for slaughter or breeding. Additionally, you shall not allow the equine to be used for purposes of vivisection or experimentation. If, after one year you elect to sell the equine, you will use your best efforts to ensure that the future owner complies with these restrictions. Any individual in possession of the equine as of the date of the agreement and any time thereafter is bound to not sell the equine at auction for slaughter or allow the equine to be sold, transferred, or otherwise placed into possession of any person or organization that will cause or allow the equine to be sold for slaughter.

5. Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation understands that not all adoptions may be successful through no fault of the person or equine. If you find that you may not be able to keep your equine, please contact Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation. We will do our best to provide you with support you need to keep you together with your equine. We always welcome back any equines that are adopted from us. If you decide to rehome your equine with a family member or friend, please notify us so we can continue to provide support to the equine.
6. You understand the Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation will contact you from time to time to provide support, if needed, and to check on the progress of the equine. We encourage you to contact Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation with any questions you may have or just to let us know how your equine is doing. We love to hear from our adopters.
7. Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation does not guarantee the health of any animal and is not responsible for the medical needs of any animal.
8. Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation, its past, present and future officers, directors, agents and employees shall not be held responsible for any defects and/or illness which the equine may have or may develop or for any damage or injury to any person or property that may be caused by the equine. You agree to release and indemnify and hold harmless Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation, its past, present and future officers, directors, agents, and employees from and against any and all liability, claims, suits, actions, judgments, costs, fees, including reasonable attorney's fees and damages for any damage or injury to any person or property that may be caused by the animal and/or arising out of and/or in connection with the equine.
9. You agree that Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation may use or authorize the use of any photographs or video of the equine and individuals in any way it deems appropriate to support its mission, including, but not limited to, fundraising purposes.
10. If you are adopting a mare, she cannot be used for breeding.

This agreement constitutes an offer of adoption by Horse and Hound Rescue Foundation. Your signature on this agreement shall constitute your acceptance of the offer, and this agreement shall be binding on you and Horses and Hound rescue Foundation upon your signing this agreement.
