Rehoming Policies & Terms

1. HSVA will try out best to re-home all equine to a location where another equine resides.
2. Potential adopters must meet with HSVA staff and be observed with the equine at HSVA prior to rehoming.
3. The distance of the Adopter's home from HSVA is a consideration in the rehoming decision.
4. Adopter agrees to provide appropriate food, water, shelter, farrier, veterinary, and dental care, and to treat the equine with kindness at all times.
5. No Slaughter: Any individual or organization in possession of the equine as of the date of this agreement and any time thereafter is bound to not sell the equine at auction for slaughter or allow the equine to be sold, transferred, released, or otherwise placed into possession of any person or organization that will cause or allow the equine to be sold at auction for slaughter.
6. Should Adopter decide to re-home or needs to return the equine, HSVA must be notified and allowed a "first right of refusal".
7. If HSVA turns down the right, the name, address, and telephone number of any individual or organization intending to take possession of the equine prior to transfer, must be given to HSVA for future check in's.
8. This agreement remains in effect until the death of the equine. Its terms are binding on any future owner and must be incorporated into any future transfer agreement.
9. The equine is transferred "as is." HSVA makes no warranties regarding temperament, health, or suitability. By signing below, Adopter acknowledges having read, understood, and agreed to all terms of this Agreement, and confirms that another equine resides at the intended location.
