

Equine Adoption Contract

I, _____ hereby agree to take responsibility for one _____ known as _____microchip number _____, to provide food, water, shelter, exercise and care including Veterinary and hoof care. I will allow inspection of this horse by Dharmahorse at any time and should the care he/she is receiving become substandard, Dharmahorse reserves the right to return him/her to the Sanctuary. Adoption fees (if paid) are non-refundable.

(__) This equine will be on a trial basis for ____ days as of: date_____ after which he/she will be returned to the Dharmahorse Equine Sanctuary in good health if he/she is not appropriate for our situation or this equine will become adopted by _____ and any fees paid in full.

(__) At home trial waived: initials of adopter_____

The adopted equine CANNOT be sold, adopted, transferred, auctioned, released, given away, or otherwise placed into the possession of another individual or organization under any circumstances and must be returned to our organization should the adopter decide that he/she is no longer able, or no longer wishes, to care for the equine.

Adopted equines cannot be bred.
If there is any breach of contract the equine must be returned to Dharmahorse.

Dharmahorse reserves the right to make scheduled visits.
Adopters can return an equine to our organization.
Adopters are required to provide updates (photos, vet records) for as long as the adopter is responsible for the care of the equine.
