

EQUUS

FOUNDATION

FOR THE LOVE OF HORSES

All horses, even champions of the racetrack and the show ring, are only one unlucky sale away from abuse, neglect, and slaughter.

The work of the EQUUS Foundation begins each time the career of a horse comes to an end.

The EQUUS Foundation is committed to ensuring that donor dollars are invested in effective programs that protect horses from peril by finding homes for horses in transition, providing a safe haven for aged horses, and increasing opportunities for people to engage and partner with horses in new and innovative ways.

The SOLUTIONS to ensure that America's horses can transition from one chapter to the next and thrive without risk of abuse and neglect - or the threat of slaughter - are within our reach -- with your help!

Informed giving has never been more important!
